Riad Farnatchi has been created out of three small Riads in the heart of the oldest part of Marrakech. Houses have stood on the site for many centuries and some of our walls go back over 400 years. Riad Farnatchi now has the feel of a beautiful, highly individual, private house, but the facilities of a world class 5 star "boutique" hotel.

The current owner, a retired award winning British hotelier, only decided to change it to it's current use when approached by Lynn, the ex manager of one of Marrakech' most respected hotels. Riad Farnatchi fills a gap at the very top of the Riad market in the Marrakech Medina, combining the wonderful interiors with her experience in Marrakech.

Winners of a British Airways Tourism for Tomorrow Award, Green Globe and a Responsible Tourism Award.

The Kasbah du Toubkal is an extraordinary venture, the product of an imaginative Berber and European partnership. Sharing a belief that the beauty of the Toubkal National Park should be accessible to all who respect it, the Kasbah has been transformed using traditional methods, from the home of a Feudal Caid into an unprecedented haven.

Situated above the village of Imlil and in view of the highest mountain in North Africa the setting is exceptional -Martin Scorsese used it as a set for his film on the Dalai Lama.

*".....With the best rooftop views in North Africa... this is the country's first and foremost mountain retreat"

Kasbah Tamadot is the latest in the collection of Richard Branson's Limited Edition properties and is certainly not to be missed. Situated next to the small berber village of Asni, the Kasbah offers superb and dramatic views; snow-capped peaks of the Atlas Mountains to the south and a steep river valley to the north.

With only 18 rooms and suites the atmosphere is relaxed and intimate while still offering a range of activities, from hot air ballooning to skiing. Alternatively, why not take a cookery lesson to learn about the local cuisine.

DAYS 6 & 7

2 Nights - Bed & Breakfast

Caravanserai

<http://www.caravanserai.com>

Caravanserai, a Persian word, describes a resting place on trading routes where merchants would stop to water camels, on the edge of cities, washing, eating and sleeping before going into town to sell their wares. With this context in mind, local architects - the pre-eminent Charles Boccara, son Mathieu and partner Max Lawrence - have created something that feels fresh, original, full of mystique.

Rooms surround a series of interconnected courtyards, interspersed with pretty pools of water, windows look inwards. Roof terraces jostle for the view. It is serene, a mule's bray muted by the metre-thick, pink pisé walls. It is rustic, without compromising comfort, featuring polished, pale ochre 'tadlakt' (polished plaster) floors, herringbone ceilings fashioned out of eucalyptus, vaulted domes, high walls, sculptural arches.

DAY 8

Tour ends with your Transfer from Caravanserai to
Marrakech Airport for onward flight
