Your stay at Kasbah du Toubkal in the High Atlas Mountains

Relax at the Kasbah or trek the mountains – your choice!

For the first part of your holiday you will stay in our luxury accommodation at the stunning Kasbah du Toubkal in the trailhead village of Imlil, just 40 miles from Marrakech but seemingly a thousand miles from the hubbub of the city.

Accommodation is on a half board basis with breakfast and evening meal provided. This will enable you to either enjoy lunch at the Kasbah or locally in Imlil. Should you opt for a full day's trek, lunch is included in the full day trekking costs (payable locally).

The High Atlas Mountains, home of Kasbah du Toubkal, dominate the skyline to the south of Marrakech. Whilst Marrakech is in itself a fascinating city, a whole new experience awaits those who venture south into the mountains.

With several peaks above 4,000 metres, including Jbel Toubkal (4,167m) the highest mountain in North Africa, the Western High Atlas is part of a larger chain of mountains that spreads from the Atlantic Coast in the west to The Mediterranean coast in the east. The mountains are home to the indigenous Berber people who have inhabited Morocco for at least 5000 years. The Berbers live in small clusters of earthen adobe houses which cling precipitously to mountainsides and are often only accessible by mule or foot.

Whilst at the Kasbah, you may choose to take a trek with us. Treks follow ancient footpaths and mule tracks that connect local villages and navigate through dramatic landscapes comprising apple orchards, walnut groves and terraced mountainsides. In the villages you will have a glimpse into a way of life that has only recently begun to change and where traditional values and hospitality are largely unaffected by the outside world. You can, of course, just relax at Kasbah du Toubkal and sip mint tea on the roof terrace, described by Condé Nast Traveller "...with the best rooftop views in North Africa ... this is the country's first and foremost mountain retreat."

Your stay in Marrakech

Explore the ancient and fascinating city of Marrakech

For the second part of your holiday you will stay on a B&B basis in the spectacular Riad Les Yeux Bleus ideally located in the old Medina in the exotic city of Marrakech. As your accommodation in Marrakech is on a B&B basis you may choose to dine at the riad or take the opportunity to eat at some of the many superb restaurants in the city, the choice is yours.

Marrakech is a fascinating city that is high on the list of places to visit by the discerning traveller. It comprises the medina, the old Arab quarter, and also the new town of Guéliz, which boasts modern restaurants and bars, fast-food chains and big brand stores. Guéliz also plays host to many arts events, an international Film Festival and several high profile international conferences.

The medina of Marrakech is built around the 12th century Koutoubia Mosque whose beautiful minaret dominates the skyline and can be seen from almost every approach to the city. Any visit to Marrakech must include a look around the medina and its colourful souk (marketplace) where you can barter for carpets, leather goods, jewellery, lanterns and spices. Another must-see is the legendary Jemaa el-Fna, the busiest and most famous square in Africa, where snake charmers, storytellers, acrobats, medicine men and musicians compete for your attention.

Marrakech also has many other attractions for visitors. These include the Majorelle Gardens owned by the late Yves Saint Laurent, the Menara Gardens, the Saadian Tombs, the medieval Medersa Ben Youssef (Koranic university) and the Musée de Marrakech, and many more besides. You can even take a hot air balloon ride over the beautiful countryside near Marrakech or trek by camel through the ancient palm groves. There are many options available to you in this exotic city.

ITINERARY

7-night package: 4 nights at Kasbah du Toubkal, 3 nights at Riad Les Yeux Bleus in Marrakech (or vice versa if you prefer)

Day 1

Private transfer from Marrakech Menara Airport to Kasbah du Toubkal in Imlil (approximately 90 minutes) where you will be met by a member of our staff who will ensure your luggage is loaded onto a mule and you will be guided on a short 15-minute mule ride or walk up to the Kasbah. Depending on your arrival time, there will be the option of a complimentary introductory walk in the area. Dinner (first meal provided in this package) and accommodation at the Kasbah.

Days 2-4

These are days to relax at the Kasbah. Enjoy free time in the Imlil area, explore the local valley, or relax in our infinity pool or in our hammam (steam bath) – the choice is yours. Guided treks can be arranged and paid for directly at the Kasbah as required. Dinner and accommodation at the Kasbah.

Day 5

After breakfast, depart Imlil and return by private transfer to Marrakech where you will check in at Riad Les Yeux Bleus on a B&B basis, giving you the opportunity to dine at some of the superb restaurants that Marrakech offers.

Days 6-7

After breakfast the day is free for you to explore the fascinating and vibrant city of Marrakech. Accommodation at Riad Les Yeux Bleus.

Day 8

After breakfast (the last meal included in the package) your private transfer to Marrakech Menara Airport will be arranged according to your departure time.

Included in the price... (ex Marrakech)
