

KASBAH DU TOUBKAL

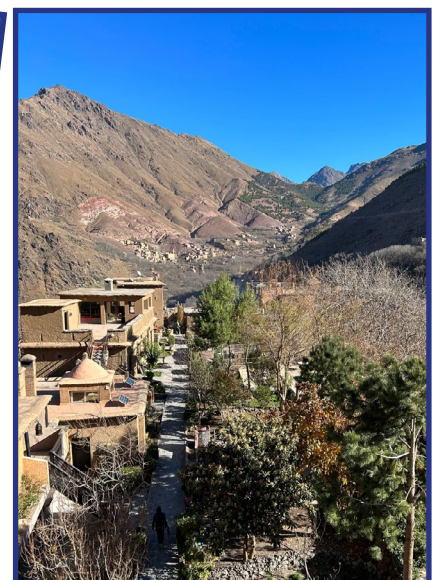

MOROCCO'S PREMIER
MOUNTAIN RETREAT

We opened on Schedule!

Kasbah du toubkal is open and operating as normal

As Kasbah chef Omar Ait Idar pours a welcoming glass of mint tea on the roof terrace and Lahcen Igdem settles behind his reception desk, we are very happy to announce that we opened Kasbah du Toubkal on 20th December, right on schedule. Guests settled in for lunch on our roof terrace under a bright blue Moroccan sun, and we were delighted to receive probably the best review of our tagine and couscous we have ever had!

PLUS ÇA CHANGE...

As you can see from the photos on the previous page, all taken on the day Kasbah du Toubkal reopened on 20th December, little has changed with the facilities guests have previously enjoyed. Bedrooms, roof terrace, hammam, 'Room with a View', all the same. And of course, nothing can change the glorious views of Jbel Toubkal and the magnificence of the surrounding countryside.

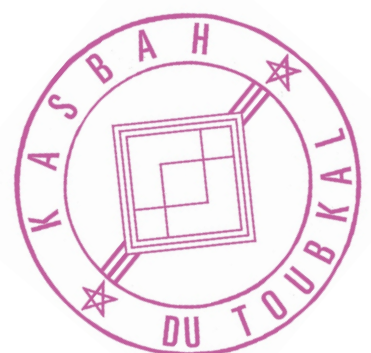

Rooms

What a wonderful view to start the day with!

And the Hammam is just as wonderful an experience as ever!

Roof terrace

“the best rooftop views in North Africa”

Condé Nast
Traveller

Whether it's to take a coffee, enjoy lunch with friends - big straw hats provided - or simply relax under Morocco's deep blue skies, our roof terrace, with its spectacular view south directly to Jbel Toubkal, North Africa's highest mountain, totally lives up to Condé Nast Traveller's words of praise.

Thank you so much for having us to stay. We were delighted to be amongst your first guests at the reopening.

Estée Torok

Room with a View and Dining Room

So named because of its glorious 360° views, 'Room with a View' has been refurbished to include a central wood-burning stove. All the visual pleasure of our roof terrace without the occasional chill. The Dining Room is the only room that has changed, and has been fitted with under-floor heating.

Happy New Year to everyone at beautiful Kasbah du Toubkal. We had the most beautiful week with you and we miss it already. Love from the Campbell family.

Azzaden Trekking Lodge

Nothing has changed at our trekking lodge in the Azzaden Valley, a lifetime away from the hustle and bustle of Marrakech.

Majestic mountains feel almost within touching distance in the tranquil Azzaden Valley

Kasbah du Toubkal's acclaim lies in many parts, as much as anything for its situation, perched on a hilltop at the end of a footpath that leads directly to its solid wooden door. But as much as anything it is the affection guests hold for the people who take care of them from the moment they enter Imlil, the excellence of the Kasbah's local cuisine and the beauty of the vistas from almost every angle of the Berber Hospitality Centre that bring them back time and time again. None of this has changed. The Kasbah is the Kasbah, and that's the way it will always be. Plus ça change, plus c'est la même chose.

If you would like to discuss any aspects further please contact us on bookings@discover.ltd.uk

We look forward to welcoming you to the Kasbah.
